

BIRMINGHAM BOTANICAL GARDENS

THE BROWN BAG 2016

LUNCH & LEARN SERIES

Bring your lunch to Birmingham Botanical Gardens and join us for FREE informational seminars.
11:30-12:30 p.m., no reservations required. Drinks and dessert provided.

MAY 11

That WOW Factor

Hear from a realtor the tips and tricks on how to make your house have that WOW factor.

MAY 25

Fronds with Benefits

In both sun and shade ferns are functional, cost efficient and environmentally friendly.

JUNE 8

Native Flower Arranging

Learn how to grow and use natives in flower arranging.

JUNE 22

Aquatic Gardens

Learn about the plants, maintenance and care for ponds - large or small

JULY 13

Oh Deer...

Learn strategies on how to prevent certain wildlife from ruining your yard or garden.

JULY 27

Better Veggies

From Soil to harvest, learn how to grow wholesome food.

AUGUST 10

How Succulent

No time? No water? No problem! Sedums and other succulents thrive in the native dry garden with very little care.

AUGUST 24

Yard Art

Discover fun alternatives to plants in your landscape while still adding charm, color, and interest.

SEPTEMBER 14

All about Bulbs

Easy care and low maintenance? Yes, and they bring added color and texture all year long!

SEPTEMBER 28

Transplanting and Care

Discover the tried and true techniques of planting, propagating, or moving established plants in your yard.

OCTOBER 12

Ask the Experts

Bring your garden related questions and ask the panel. Trees, turf, vegetables, soil, pests, and disease - our experts have the answers!

OCTOBER 26

They're So Wicked

Discover what plants are harmful or toxic, how to control them and the folklore associated with them!

presented in partnership with:

bbgardens.org/classes