

Three Jefferson County residents and one group of high school students were presented Proclamations of Achievement by the Jefferson County Commission for having received statewide recognition by Alabama People Against a Littered State (AL PALS) for their outstanding efforts to clean up roadside litter in unincorporated areas of Jefferson County. Pictured left to right are: Jefferson County Commission President Jimmie Stephens; Zhaleh M. McCullers, Director, Storm Water Management Department; Scott Gilchrist, resident of The Cotswolds, AL PALS Honda Spring Cleanup Award recipient; Kristin Ferguson, Vice President, Oak Grove High School Student Government Association (SGA), AL PALS Schools Award recipient; M. Sgt. Keith Golden, resident of Corner/Bagley, AL PALS Vulcan Volunteer of the Year Award recipient; Courtney Gardner, Oak Grove High School teacher and SGA sponsor; Diane McCarty, Oak Grove High School teacher and SGA sponsor. Not pictured: Rose Cantor, resident of Adger, AL PALS Special Award recipient.